Welcome

Our speaker this morning, Mr. Royal H. Fisher, is chairman of the Protestant Commission for Japanese Service. We are grateful to the Commission for their cooperation and help in our work. Mr. Fisher comes to us from Denver and has recently travelled across the nation from Seattle to Chicago to Boston. This is his second visit to our center. Welcome back, Mr. Fisher!

fellowship

The high school Christian Youth Fellowship and the Young Peoples' Christian Fellowship will meet together. Mr. Royal H. Fisher, who was born in Tokyo, will speak on "Recent Trends of Christianity in Japan.

As he has recently visited many of the cities where Nisei have resettled and have been on the Pacific Coast, he will also relate experiences. Informal question period will follow.

The meeting will open with a songfest at 7:30 p.m. Music chairman of the CYF, Joan Ziegler, will be in charge.

HAPPINESS HOUR

Join the happy throng at the midweek services! Twenty-six attended the junior "Happiness Hour" group at PSH 2 last Wednesday evening. "The Adventures of David" is being studied and the lesson will be I Samuel, Chapter 24, this Wednesday. Rev. K. H. Sakaue will lead.

The young people meets regularly at the Church Office, 20-6-F, with Dr. W. M. Garrett as leader. Let's meet for interesting Bible study, pray for others, and sing favorite hymns. Be with us this week, won't you? April 11, 7:00 p.m.

VISIT TO LITTLE ROCK

We welcome home the Girls' Auxiliary members who attended the conference in Little Rock last week. The Bosteens went to the Y.W.A. meetings in the capitol city recently. Miss Roberta Best, advisor and teacher, accompanied the girls. We appreciate her work in behalf of the group.

MEMBERS, please secure your copy of the Church Directory from the ushers.

letter box

Haruko Matsushita writes: "It is now two years since I was reborn. I am glad that I have had the peace which one receives when he accepts Christ as our personal Saviour...I hope this war brings more people to Christ than ever....I am certainly praying that I may be His shining light, that I would uplift the name of our Saviour Jesus Christ and that I can help bring more people to be reborn..." She is attending Macalester College, St. Cloud, Minnesota.

"We've been receiving the church bulletins regularly and wish to thank you for remembering us," says Betty and Jack Kanegaye, 3900 Wyandot St., Denver, 11, Colorado.

Pfc. Fred Koyama has been transferred to Co. C, 143 M.T.B. Fort Lewis, Washington.
